THE M'DOWELL BUTCHERY.

Trial of Cala Simons for the Murder-A Sealed Verdict Rendered.

The trial of the negro Cain Simons for the nurder of John T. McDowell, Jr., on the night of the 10th of last August, took place in the Court of General Sessions yesterday be fore Judge Graham. The State was represented by Mr. A. M. Mackey, acting temporarily as solicitor, and the prisoner, who is a large and powerful negro, with a most brutal and repulsive appearance, was defended, at the request of the court, by Mr. E. B. Ses. brook. The jury was obtained, after a number of challenges on behalf of the State, and was composed of three white and nine colored men, as follows: J. H. Albers, white, foreman; Francis Lee, colored; M. G. Camplin, colored James Lewis, colored; O. Matthews, colored; Edward iW. Lee, colored; Thomas D. Smalls, colored; A. B. Mitchell, colored; S. C. Brown white; J. B. Wright, colored; E. J. Lacca sagne, white; and H. J. M. King, colored.

The first wirness called for the prosecution was Dr. J. Somers Buist, who testified that he had made a post-mortem examination of the body of John T. McDowell, on the 11th of August, and found six punctured wounds, two upon the anterior portion of the thorax, and four upon the back, any one of which would have been sufficient to produce death.

P. W. Washington, colored, testified that on the afternoon previous to the killing of Mc-Dowell, he had been in a store at the corner of Line and St. Philip streets, where the prisoner had cursed the deceased in a most abu sive manner and without any apparent provo cation. The witness soon after went home. and about half an hour thereafter the deceased. who lived at the same place, came in. Cain Simons, the prisoner, soon after came into the yard, and Julia Baxter, who occupied the kitchen, after some dispute over a puppy which the prisoner had taken from the yard and had not returned, ordered him out of the yard. Julia Baxter then went up stairs into the house where McDowell was, and asked him to come down stairs and "put that nigger out of the yard." McDowell came down and said to Simons, "Please go out of the yard." Simons said, "You damned ----, what have you got to do with the vard ?" McDowell asked whom he was cursing, and, picking up a piece of wood, walked toward Simons and asked him if he meant it.

Simons replied, "Yes, you damned --, and at the same time put his hand in his pocket and took out a knife. McDowell asked Simons what he was going to do with the knife, at the same time striking Simons on the nose with his fist. Simons in falling cut McDowell on the hand, and McDowell struck Simons several times with his fist. McDowell then went into the kitchen to get his hat, saying that he was going out to get rid of the fuss. Simons also went into the kitchen and selzed his gun, which was standing there. McDowell came up, took hold of the gun, and turned around to see if it was loaded. At that moment Simons stabbed McDowell in the right shoulder with a knife he had in his right hand. McDowell's arm dropped, and the butt of the gun fell on the floor. Both then had a tussel, and Mo. Dowell threw Simons down. Simons, while down, and while McDowell was on top of him, reached over and stabbed McDowell in the back. Simons then got on top and stabbed McDowell again in the shoulder and once in the back. Simons then caught McDowell by the feet, pulled him out of the house, and stabbed him three or four times more. Simone then turned toward the witness saying, "You _____, I will make it your last end to-night;" and the witness jumped through a window and went for the police, and when he returned McDowell was dead.

The testimony of this witness furnished substantially the whole story of the tragedy. The other witnesses examined on behalf of the prosecution were Miss Julia Baxter, Rachel Gardner, onlored; William Dowell, J. Frank General J. Vogdes and staff arrived in Mason, Dr. B. F. Shier, Lieutenant Wm. Webb this city last evening on the steamship of the city rolloe, J. Robert Lyons, and Eliza latter on a charge of housebreaking and from New York. The general Bobinson, colored. The circumstances of the grand larceny. Several months ago a barkilling were repeated by these witnesses, no new or material facts were elicited. The case was then summed up by Mr. Mackey on behalf of the State, and Mr. Seabrook for the defence, after which Judge Graham briefly charged the jury, saying that the case presented to them was narrowed down to the three propositions: as to the inducement under which the prisoner inflicted the fatal blows, whether the act was done in self-defence, in sudden heat and passion, or in malice. If they should find that the killing had been done in self-defence, they would return a verdict of not guilty; if in sudden heat and passion, their verdict would be, guilty of manslaughter; and If with malice aforethought, either expressed or implied, they would find the prisoner guilty of murder. The jury retired at fitteen minutes past two. and atter about one hour's consideration brought in a sealed verdict, which will be opened at the assembling of the court this morning.

CITY THPROVEMENTS.

Widening King Street-The Work about to be Commenced.

At the last meeting of the City Council, the contract for removing several buildings on the west side of King street, south of Clifford, was awarded to Mr. Thomas Black on a bid of $4850. The buildings to be removed are fou building with brick foundations, on the southwest corner of King and Ciliford streets, owned by Mr. C. D. Ahrens, and occupied by Mr. William Brookbanks, dealer in gas-fixtures; a two-story wooden building next south of the above, owned by Mr. William J. McKinlay; and two two-story brick buildings adjuling the latter on the south, owned by Mrs. Louisa Bel zer. The buildings are advanced six feet farther on the sidewalk than the line of the other buildings, both above and below. The lots of Messrs. McKinlay and Ahrens do not extend further to the rear than the end of the buildings, and the latter could not therefore be removed back. To obviate this difficulty, the City Council has purchased a lot on Clifford street immediately adjeining these lots to the ear, and have presented the owners with the required six feet. In undertaking the work the Council agrees to pay the cost of removing the buildings and restoring them to tenantable condition. The work will be commenced as soon as the contract has been signed by all the parties concerned, which will probably be some time during the coming week. This is completion will add a great deal to the conventence of the public and the appearance of Habenicht with a deadly weapon, and the Fall room on Meeting street was broken open and a number of articles were stolen therefrom among which was a pistol. Last Thursday the pistol was found in the possession o Charles Bentham, a well known hanger-on of the Courthouse, and as Bentham could not give a satisfactory account of the manner in which he got the pistol, he was bound over as above. Last Wednesday night a negro, named Emanuel Cohen, living near the Six-Mile House, secured the assistance of John Blake, colored, armed himself with a gun and proeeded to hunt down his brother-in-law, another negro named Simons, with whom he had some domestic differences. The game having been roused. Cohen, in a spasm of fraternal affection, discharged the contents of his gun at the flying Simons, who, fortunately, owever, escaped uninjured. Cohen and Blake were carried before Trial Justice Mackey, yesterday, and sentenced, the for mer to five dollars and costs or thirty days in jail, and the latter to one dollar and costs or twenty days.

THE NEW KU-KLUX CRUSADE.

Sixty-Eight Indictments Before the State Court in York County. Judge T. J. Most of these men have already been indicted in the United States Courts, many of them have been tried therein, and, in fact some of them are now serving long terms of imprisonment in the Albany penitentiary under convictions in those courts for the very 307 King street.

offences for which it is now proposed to try them in the State courts.

In the meantime the re-elected Federal administration seems inclined to relax its proseoutlon of the Ku-Klux cases in this State. A number of vague intimations to this effect have been received from time to time, and we have been recently informed by a prominent Federal official that at the ensuing term of the United States Circuit Court, to be opened by Judge Bond on the 25th Instant, at Columbia, there will be but few cases of this kind presented for trial. These will include only those cases where the crime of murder is charged, and only the most prominent of the men named in the murder indictments, so that it is probable that there will be but a very small quantity of criminal business before the court t this term.
